The Cornwallis Lecture – Application Form

The first 'Cornwallis Lecture' was presented by M.W. Bro. The Lord Cornwallis in 2002. It was explained at that time, it was intended that the Provincial Grand Masters of East and West Kent would select future lecturers in alternate years.

Those Brethren, who wish to be considered for selection, should complete the form, which is part of this letter.

Please include a short CV in an MS Word document giving as much information as you can, but be brief. A synopsis of the lecture and any relevant notes & comments, also in digital format, should accompany the application.

It should be noted that the venues for the six presentations of the lecture will be selected and arranged by the Kent Masonic Museum and Library Trust. Three will take place in East Kent and three in West Kent.

Applications will only be considered from West Kent this year & forwarded to the Provincial Grand Secretary accordingly.
